Getty indicated that surveys have not typically yielded many responses. Gasper stated that she likes the concept of Community Visioning Workshops and feels that invitations should be sent to teachers, school leaders, Bradford White Corporation, local businesses and other interested community leaders/members. Getty stated that the JPA Committee will be engaging in these Community Visioning Workshops. Getty stated that this Master Plan Update is a requirement but is not a total rewrite. Getty stated that in order to be fiscally conservative, she suggests that the Commission choose only one public input strategy, so it mitigates the need to ask the Board for additional monies for the Planning Commission's budget. Rairigh does not feel that adequate public input would be gathered from any of the three input options. Hansson inquired how the Township would get the word out to notify the public to complete the survey. Gasper inquired as to the type of audience that the Township would like to gather input.
